NEXT LEVEL THINKING

Our goal is to prepare you for your next level. Your next level may be moving from junior to senior, from bantam to midget, from a regional team to a provincial team or from high school to university. Regardless of what your basketball goals are we will teach technical and tactical basketball-specific skills that will help you in your movement from one level to the next. We run a competitive and physically demanding camp because we feel hard work is one of the key components of future success. Ultimately that's what makes our camp rewarding. We will challenge you to get better by creating an environment where you can have fun, learn and improve.

WHY THIS CAMP?

Better basketball players are developed during the off-season. However, it is common for players to put many hours into training without maximizing their returns. Our camp will help you become a better basketball player by developing and refining your basketball-specific skills and athletic ability.

- We can help you develop and improve your game in the off-season -- the most important time for your individual development!
- The staff and speakers are all former and/or current CIS and NCAA players and coaches who value and understand the importance of your off-season development!
- We focus on developing your individual skills and challenge you to learn and refine skills that will benefit you at the next level.
